About EARTH TIDES PAGAN NETWORK

The EARTH TIDES PAGAN NETWORK was established in 1989 as a support resource for Maine's Pagan community. This community is diverse, independent and geographically distant. We practice earth-based alternative religions. Most of us worship in existing groups or as solitaries, but feel a need for contact and a shared forum to express opinions and concerns over issues bearing on the Pagan Community in general.

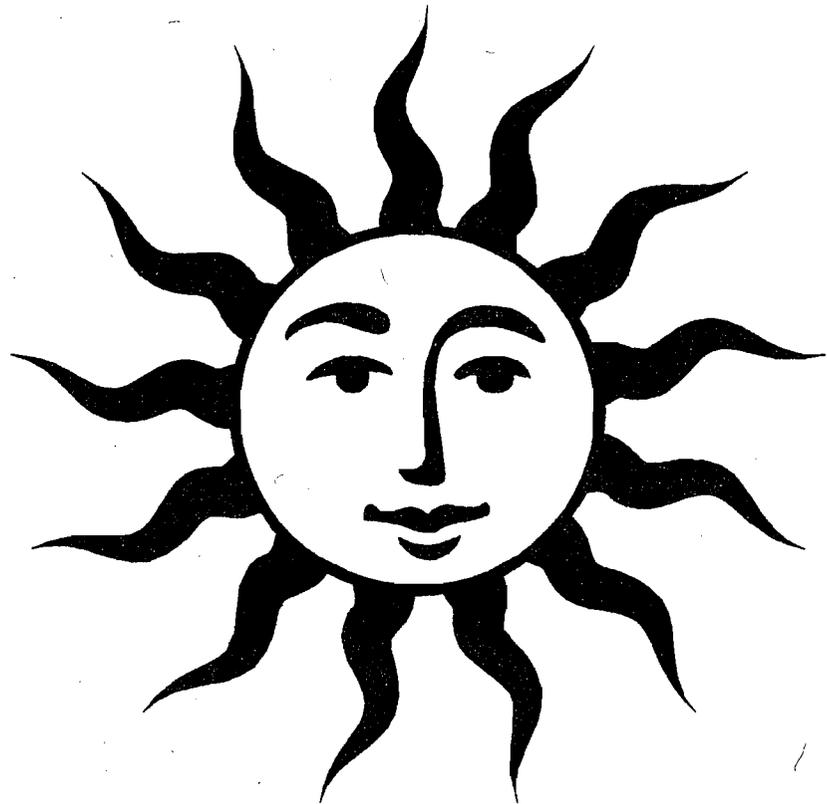

The EPN keeps names, addresses and phone numbers confidential except to other network members. Individuals who are under 18 years of age must submit written parental approval to attend gatherings or study with members. The EPN will aid in establishing contacts between individuals if asked to do so, but accepts no legal responsibility for the results.

This newsletter comes out eight times per year around the Sabbats. Literary, poetic and artistic contributions are welcome as well as letters, articles, book reviews and editorial pieces. Please keep submissions to no more than two pages, typed and double spaced. You may also send your submission in ASCII, MSWord or WordPerfect format on disc or submit it by e-mail to mugwert@ime.net

Submissions will be edited for grammar, spelling and to fit available space. The EarthTides Pagan Network News is copyrighted 1998 by The EarthTides Pagan Network. All submissions remain the property of the authors and may not be reproduced without their permission.

Memberships are available for a suggested donation of $11.00 US funds per year. Single copies may be obtained by sending a $1.50 donation and a self-addressed, stamped envelope to EPN, PO Box 161, East Winthrop, ME 04343. The next EPNN will come out just around Beltane. We hope to hear from more of you before then. Blessed Be!

NETWORKING

NOTE: While all those listed below are EarthTides members, The EarthTides Pagan Network does not screen the contacts listed below. We are not the "policemen" of Paganism in Maine and would frankly resent such an authority. Everyone should be able to follow their own path. But the downside to this freedom is that You must exercise GOOD JUDGEMENT when using this list. Anyone who makes you uncomfortable or asks you to do anything which makes you uncomfortable is probably wrong for you. Individuals who are under 18 years of age must submit written parental approval to attend gatherings or study with members. EPN will aid in establishing contacts between individuals if asked to do so, but accepts no legal responsibility for the results

Special Interests

I am interested in being a contact for EPN to the deaf community. My youngest daughter is deaf, and I would love to meet deaf adults who are pagan and other pagan parents of deaf children. Ede 725-6767 relay #1-800-437-1120 or ede@clinic.net

NOTES ABOUT LISTINGS ON THE NETWORKING PAGE

This page carries notices of EarthTides member groups and individuals seeking to network with each other. If you are an EPN member group or individual that wishes to accept new members, begin a discussion group, accept new students or hold open rituals, or if you are an individual wishing to find a teacher, group, or ritual, please send us a notice for publication. (send by mail to E.P.N. P.O. Box 161, East Winthrop, ME 04343 or by e-mail to mugwert@ime.net). We hope listings will be specific as to what they are offering: classes, formation of a new group, taking students, being a clearing house for local events or simply offering Pagan fellowship. Listings on this page are FREE to all EarthTides members. Non-members wishing to advertise are advised to take out an "Unclassified Ad". Please see Advertising in EPNN on page 4. If you wish your listing to appear in the next issue be sure to send your copy in. DO IT NOW!

PAGAN STUDENT ASSOCIATION

The first Pagan Student Association at the University of Southern Maine was held on February 5, 1998 thanks to the efforts of Rebecca Hotaling and Patrick Lundin. Some of the goals of PSA are to promote networking among pagan students at USM, provide educational information, promote goodwill and generally have some fun. The group discussed several ideas for events for the upcoming year including holding educational seminars and possibly an outdoor faire.

At the second meeting of the PSA group held February 27, 1998, the members present decided on dates for educational seminars and some fund raising activities for the faire. The dates are as follows:

March 19th - bake sale for raising funds will be held at the USM Portland Campus Center 11:00 AM to 4:00 PM

March 20th - educational social time at the USM Portland Campus Center 1-3 PM. There will be a table of information available for people wanting more information and pagans, of course, to answer questions.

April 16th - plant sale for raising funds to be held at the USM Portland Campus Center 9:00 AM to 4:30 PM

April 22nd - Earth Day Booth at USM, Portland Campus. Although not a PSA sponsored event, Patrick Lundin is the chairperson for the earth day event and has asked for help manning the PSA booth. The theme for the PSA booth is H.O.M.E (Honor Our Mother Earth). We plan to make this booth family oriented by having face painting for the kids and other related family activities. There will also be an EPN representative on hand to answer questions. Anyone wanting to help at the booth, contact a PSA officer or EPN.

April 30th - educational social time at the USM Portland Campus Center 1:00 PM to 3:00 PM.

Open Air Faire - to be held outside at the Portland Campus between the Luther Bonney Hall and Payson/Smith Hall with tentative dates of either May 6th or May 7th. This will be an all day faire and lots of fun. We plan to have vendors, workshops, card readings, drumming and a barbecue. Anyone interested in donating their particular craft/skill/musical talents, etc. or has an idea for an activity, contact an officer of the PSA.

Other good news is that the University of Maine in Orono has also started a PSA group and Colby College is in the process of forming a group as well, using the USM's group charter as a guideline.

The next PSA meeting will be held Thursday, March 12th at 4:30 PM at the University Campus Center, Room C. The meeting is open to everyone. You don't need to be a USM student to attend.

The officers of PSA are as follows:
Rebecca Hotaling, Chair (828-2032)
Patrick Lundin, Vice Chair (828-2032)
Sherrill Hutchison, Treasurer (773-4362)
Julie Brooks, Secretary (727-5844)

Blessed be,
Julie Brooks

THE PAGAN PANTRY

Maine has it's own "Pagan Pantry"! It is here to help people and animals in need, Pagan or not. Those who are in need should call (207) 296-3482 and ask for "Star". You may also write to her at PO Box 10, Stetson, Maine 04488

Donations of non-perishable food, money, and non-food items such as cleansers, pet food, toilet paper, shampoo, etc. can be dropped off at Silo 7 in Bangor, Dragon of the Mist in Waterville or with Star in Stetson - call for directions.

OTHER PAGAN PUBLICATIONS

EarthTides Pagan Network News has subscription exchanges with the following Pagan publications. They are all worth your interest:

Horns and Crescent P.O. Box 540622 Milieu MA 02054

On Jan 30 EPN celebrated its second CPR at Hersey retreat. It was a sellout, again! With more than 30 Pagans present, we shared food, companionship, and ritual together. There was a council meeting-with an investment of officers for the coming year-and a general membership meeting. Plans were made for next year's CPR with several volunteers promising to keep the festival on the right track. We also made plans for our outreach efforts, including Common Ground and Full Circle Fairs, and Earth Day in Farmington. A number of new committees were formed. All of these events still need help, so please check in this issue for ways to contact your solitary representatives and who to contact for various committees.

Highlights of the non-business side included a well-attended workshop on Dream Catchers, taught by EPN's new Vice-President Ann Marie. Due to popular demand, Solitary rep Pjane taught a meditation workshop for those wishing a little quiet time. Outside, many of us discovered the joy of a virgin sled hill.

No gathering would be complete without ritual, however, and CPR offered two of them. Friday night was young Rebecca's birthday ritual with everyone participating in well wishes. Saturday night featured the main ritual—an homage to the Tricksters so prevalent this time of year.

VP Ann Marie brought welcome news of EPN's new web page <http://www.mix-net.net/~annmarie/earthtides/> and the official EPN T-shirts which can be found illustrated on the Page. They are, of course, available for purchase with proceeds benefiting EPN. Check the Web Page or write to the EPN mailbox for info.

Next up: First annual Spring Thing. A long-standing tradition continues with a Maypole raising on Popham Beach. And don't forget that we now have three ongoing Coffee Houses in various locales. Check the Events Calendar for more info on all of these events.

OPEN SPRING EQUINOX CIRCLE

The Temple of Brigantia will present a Spring Equinox Circle Saturday, March 14, at Sacred Oaks in Wells. This Wiccan rite will celebrate the coming of spring and honor Sulis Minerva, Celto-Roman goddess of wisdom and healing.

Sacred Oaks is a wonderful building, with a secluded location, plenty of parking, wheelchair accessibility and complete kitchen facilities. Cost is $3 per person to cover the rental of the ritual space.

We'll gather at 6 p.m. and close the doors at 7 to begin the ritual. There'll be a potluck dinner afterwards; please bring food for yourself and some to share.

For more information or to inquire about a future Wiccan study group, e-mail Jane at pjane@maine.rr.com or Cassius at Cassius622@aol.com, or call 207-885-0424.

Please feel free to share this announcement with anyone who might be interested in attending.

HOW TO GET THERE:

From Exit 2 of the Maine Turnpike, turn left at the first light and head south on Route 109. Travel 1.6 miles to the intersection of Route 1, and take a right. Travel 3.6 miles south on Route 1 (this distance includes three sets of traffic lights, in case you lose track). On your right you'll see Drake's English Pub, then a small sign for Gray's Antiques. Turn right after Gray's onto Tatnic Road. Sacred Oaks is 1.5 miles ahead on the right; there's a green wooden sign with gold lettering.

NOTES FROM THE UNDERWORLD

Recently I had the pleasure of reading Peter Gomes' The Good Book, Reading the Bible With Heart and Mind. I was particularly fascinated by the chapter on evil and temptation. These are not comfortable subjects for pagans. Many of us turned to alternative religions because something about who we are or what we do was labeled "Evil" or "Wrong" by one of the mainstream religions at one point or another. The thought that such ideas could follow us to this greener pasture makes us uncomfortable. Witness the proliferation of what I call Feel Good books on Paganism, Wicca or any other spiritual path. How much time does the average Llewellyn book spend on moral guidance? Does that very question make you nervous?

I believe that evil and temptation are a very real part of who we are and where we are. I want to share some thoughts with you in light of the recent referendum in which the citizens of our fair state revoked the human rights of an entire class of people. I have heard many people ask how that could have happened. Everyone was so sure that civil rights would prevail, that fair mindedness so common to Maine people would do itself proud. Everyone was shocked by the unthinkable, and the pain and hurt that I have heard, felt and seen all around me is incalculable.

The question that many ask is, "How could people claiming to be Christians do such a thing? How can they call themselves Christian?"

The people who spearheaded the campaign to repeal the human rights law are Christians. They are entirely devout people who no doubt act as their conscience directs and who believe firmly in what they are doing. By and large they are good people whose religious belief informs a great deal of their worldview. They believe they possess a spiritual strength that can not be turned aside. They believe in the very goodness of their actions.

And therein lies their downfall.

Weakness and flaws of personality are not the stuff on which evil and temptation prey. For the most part, we guard those areas of ourselves and are on the lookout for problems. No, if evil is reaching out to someone, it will always reach for their strengths. How else could a group of otherwise honest and good people work so hard to make other people miserable, all the while absolutely convinced that they are doing the right thing? There is no weapon greater than a person who regards him or herself as morally upright. They can easily be made to campaign against anyone they think "inferior" to themselves. It has happened countless times throughout history. Spiritual strength is easily turned into spiritual pride. Once that happens, the tragic game of "Us and Them" rapidly follows. Add this to Fundamentalism and its basic need for a common enemy, and a recipe for disaster evolves. Evil dances in the streets.

Members of the Christian Civic League and the Christian Coalition firmly believe they were doing God's work when they trampled on the hard-won civil rights of gay and lesbian people. Perhaps Michael Heath and Paul Volle think it just fine that gay men are now being attacked in the streets. One thing is for certain. They did not do the work of their God. They did the work of their Devil.

And, typical of evil, they are completely unaware of that fact. Perhaps they don't even realize what they lost on the way to their victory. In exchange for a political point, they have traded in their honesty, their credibility, their clean image, and a host of other attributes that have yet to be discovered. They unmasked themselves as groups willing to trade their souls and the soul of an entire state to have their way.

And they traded. Oh, how they traded. Evil is dancing in the streets of Maine.

What is a Pagan to do? First of all, we need to take off the rose colored glasses and realize that evil and temptation do exist for us, that they are subtle, and that they prey upon our strengths. We must set aside our anger at this moral injustice on the part of the CCL and the CCME. We must put down our fury at the people of Maine for their apathy. Those are tools for evil as well. Evil can not stand to be recognized. It's power is diminished when people are aware of it's existence. Recognizing evil and naming it when you see it are the best ways to defeat it. Refuse to play its game, but realize that it is the dark side of who you are. Understand that to lose perspective is to lose yourself. In short, don't try to be a better person than your enemy. Strive to be a better person than you are now.

May the Gods guide us as we guide ourselves to a brighter day.

-Jackal

Editor's note: Jackal is the President of EarthTides Pagan Network

SOLITARY VOICE

At some point, nearly all Pagans worship as solitaries. Some choose to do so. Others find themselves isolated from the Pagan community, or find themselves in a life situation that prevents their making time for group worship.

Maybe you're one of them. We know this newsletter reaches many more people than are in the existing Maine groups. This column is for you.

EarthTides - may its founders and sustainers be blessed - has long recognized the number and importance of solitaries. In creating a nonprofit organization last year, the writers of its bylaws established two places on the Council for solitary representatives, plus an alternate.

We'd like to make sure we're accurately representing your wishes, goals and views for what EarthTides should be. But we can't do that unless we hear from you. That's why this column is here - to make sure you know WE'RE here.

In future issues we'll write about various topics related to solitary worship. We'll also ask your opinions and seek your feedback. If you have any ideas for issues you'd like to see discussed, either in the newsletter or in the EPN council, please let us know.

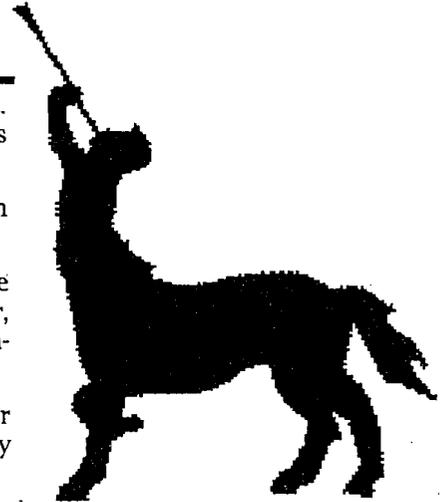

Here's who we are and how to get in touch with us:

Jane Raeburn, P.O. Box 64, Portland, ME 04112; phone 885-0424; e-mail pjane@maine.rr.com

SPRING THING

If you liked Cabin-fever Pagan Retreat, you'll love EPN's first annual Spring Thing: April 24th through 26th. Same great location, but warmer weather! We're planning workshops (let us know if you'd like to offer one), rituals, fun & games, drumming, and a Bardic Circle. Indoor beds are limited to 25 and registration checks have already been coming in, so don't wait!

Registration Form (send to EPN, PO Box 161, E. Winthrop, ME 04343):

Name: _____ Phone: _____

Address: _____

E-mail (confirmation will be by e-mail unless you request otherwise): _____

____ Indoor EPN members @ $15.00 each (members' kids over 10 count here)

+ _____ Indoor non-members @ $25.00 each (non-members' kids over 10)

+ _____ Tenting* (members @ $10. each, non-members @ $20. each)

+ _____ Children 10 and under (free)**

= _____ Amount enclosed (payable to EPN)

Meals. Each meal is the responsibility of a group of three or four people who plan, prepare, serve, and clean up. Each paid participant, whether adult or youngster, has a meal assignment.

*Tenting. Might be cold, might be wet, but if you bring a tent and plan on sleeping in it, then your fee is only $10.00, and you get macho points. All other facilities are open to you, of course-- just not a bed. In inclement weather, tenters can have carpeted space in the basement.

**Children. There is no cost for kids 10 or under, if you can bring a mat and have them curl up on the floor, or have them share a bed with you.

Need more info? then call (207) 377-3967 or e-mail wachel@wa2000.winarea.biddeford.com
